The new county road through Jerusalem Township has been greatly injured by fire, and much damage is apprehended at present. Several bridges have been burned. A valuable pair of horses, owned by E. L. [illegible] of [illegible], were so burned on Friday last while driving through, that it is very doubtful if they can live. The fire is still burning.

The bears are making sad havoc among the sheep in Madrid. J. G. Conant has lost seven, three were killed in one night.

Last Sabbath as Mrs. Hosea F. Bump of Farmington, was returning home her horse became frightened at some other horses by the roadside and began to run and kick, overturning the vehicle. Mrs. B. being unable to extricate herself was dragged several rods receiving severe injuries about the head and neck. The wagon was considerably damaged although the horse stopped soon after the lady was cleared. ——Whooping cough has been prevalent among the school children.——Haying has begun, with wages rather small, good men being hired for about $1.00 per day. The crop will probably be nearly the same as last year.——Crops are growing finely, although rather backward on account of cool and windy weather.

Kennebec.

There has not been a time in North Vassalboro' for several years when so much building and repairing has been carried on as at the present time.

A little boy by the name of Brown, at Augusta, who was unable to swim, got into the river over his head an evening or two ago, in the rear of the Journal office, and had not Parker Wilder, who was upon the shore near by, seen him as he sank, and jumped in after him, the little fellow would in all probabilities, have been drowned. Parker deserves praise.

Six editors from Augusta joined the Editoral excursion. Most of them were accompanied with two ladies each.

On Wednesday the 3d inst., a severe thunder storm passed over Albion, accompanied by wind and hail, which did considerable damage to the growing crops. Trees were uprooted in many places, by the wind, and in the north part of the town considerable glass was broken by hail, twenty panes being broken from the house of Mr. Benson Higgins. The hailstones are spoken of as the largest ever seen, and the flashes of lightening the most frequent and vivid that have been witnessed for many years; but no damage was done in this town, though it struck and burnt a tree near the dwelling of Mr. Edward Rollins, frightening the family considerably.

Knox.

On Sunday morning last, as Mr. Gardner L. Farrand, of the Meadows, with his wife and two children, was on his way to Rockland to attend church, the axle of his carriage broke, letting one wheel come off, and throwing out the occupants. A little girl about ten years of age, was dragged over a stone wall by the horse, her head and body shockingly bruised, and the bones of one arm broken. It was at first supposed that the others were not hurt, but subsequently Mrs. Farrand became insensible, and afterward delirious, and it is now feared that she was more seriously injured than at first appeared. The little girl was taken into Jonathan Spear's, where Dr. Banks gave her the proper medical attention, and she is now doing well.

young lady. While coming up Main street in the afternoon he dropped one rein over the carriage dasher and while trying to recover it the horse ran the carriage against a tree near the bank, throwing young Williams out of the carriage, breaking his left leg just above the knee, and badly demolishing the carriage, which was owned by William H. Murray of North Vassalboro'. The young lady was uninjured.

REPUBLICAN
STATE CONVENTION FOR 1878.

The Republicans of Maine and all independent voters who are in favor of preserving the credit of the National Government, and a sound currency for the people—equivalent to coin, and redeemable in coin—are requested to send delegates to a State Convention to be held in the City Hall at Portland, Tuesday, July 30th, 1878, at 11 o'clock A. M.,

For the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and transacting any other business that may properly come before the Convention.

The basis of representation will be as follows:—Each city, town and plantation is entitled to one delegate, and one additional delegate for every 75 votes given for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1876. A fraction of forty votes over the number which is entitled to one delegate, will be accorded a delegate.

The State Committee will be in session the evening preceding, and at 9 o'clock the morning of the Convention, and will receive credentials of delegates.

"LANGUAGE FITTED TO THE TIMES."

Under the above caption the editor of the Democrat in the issue of that paper dated May 13, 1873, quoted and indorsed as "wholesome matter" some of the most emphatic utterances of Gov. Ingersoll of Connecticut in his inaugural. It will be borne in mind that these words so highly commended by the Commercial were spoken at that period to which Mr. Emery and his Greenback allies, are now pointing as an example of ruin caused by a failure to swell the volume of irredeemable paper currency. What Governor Ingersoll thought then; and what Mr. Emery informed them, concerning the effects of a paper currency "without intrinsic value," is told below:

"Chief among these causes is, in my judgment, that calamitous legacy of the civil war, an irredeemable paper currency, without intrinsic value, and possessing a current value baffling human foresight with its fluctuations, carries into all dealings its element of risk; and by discouraging regular industry, draws into the enormous speculations it fosters the money which should be in the service of the legitimate business of the country. I KNOW OF NO EVIL WHICH MERE LEGISLATION CAN PRODUCE, SO HARD FOR THE GREAT BODY OF THE COMMUNITY AS THIS OF AN IRREDEEMABLE PAPER CURRENCY. It has never yet failed to demoralize the people who have yielded to its temptations, or to afford a harvest for the speculator and extortioner, at the expense of honest industry.

"WE SEE ITS INFLUENCE surrounding us in the extravagance of expenditure rapidly leading to indebtedness of individuals and communities—in the impatience of any other industry than such as may seem to lead, by some short road, to wealth—in the bold combinations of reckless men to control, for their own gainful uses, the very sources of commercial life—in threatened panics—in uncertain values—in disappointing wages of labor—but above all, in that decadence of moral strength which, by the frequently occurring defalcations and bankruptcies, is being exposed in places where faith and trust have been the strongest.

As Mr. Emery has of late failed to give place in his columns to such "Language fitted to the times" he should be grateful to us for recalling the hard-money sentiments that he published and indorsed in 1873.

MR. BOUTWELL ON THE LABOR QUESTION.

[From the New York Tribune.]

The address of the Hon. George S. Boutwell at Worcester tells in a plain and sensible manner some old truths which the labor agitators have still to learn. Hard times always bring complaints of the tyranny of capital and machinery, and the only remedy which occurs to the ignorant workingman is to limit the productiveness of labor in order to raise its price. But reason and experience alike make it plain that this only aggravates the disorder, and that the true cure is to be found in the very contrary process. General prosperity always increases in direct ratio with the productiveness of industry. All labor-saving inventions have resulted, after a very brief period of disturbance and readjustment, in a greater demand for labor, higher wages, cheaper living, a marked improvement in the condition of the laboring classes, and a more general diffusion of wealth. There is a constant rivalry in trade and manufactures between the various countries of the world. Our prosperity, the good fortune of all the industrial classes in America, must be measured by our success in this international competition.

The special lesson which Mr. Boutwell wishes to enforce by these principles is the necessity for a more extensive technical education at the cost of the State. But another and just now more useful lesson to be drawn from them is the folly of attacks which ill-informed laboring men are making upon the very sources of their own well-being. The aim of all such assaults is to create an artificial scarcity of the products of labor, in the wild notion that a country is most prosperous when it is most destitute!

[illegible]

The editor of the Commercial gives editorial prominence in last evening's paper to the following indorsement of Gen. Butler by the N. Y. Sun:

"Worse things may happen in this country than to have Gen. Butler for President; still we hope nothing worse will happen. Whatever may be said against Gen. Butler, no one, we believe, will be found to question his patriotism."

Merely indorsing Gen. Butler's "patriotism" and clasping the [illegible] in one fond embrace, [illegible] a pathetic tableau.

A FABLE—AFTER AESOP.

A man who had long lived and thrived upon vice and falsehood, was publicly arraigned by another for one of his minor offences. Fearing to meet the facts he bethought him of strategy. Said he, "I will procure a great branding iron with the word 'LIAR' in large letters which I will heat with a white heat, and by suddenly thrusting it in the face of mine accuser, I will divert public attention from mine own dishonesty and escape while the people are gazing at the glaring brand in mine enemy's forehead." And he straightway procured the brand-iron which he secretly heated in a little furnace until it was heated with a white heat. And he concealed it within himself, as he said "Now will I conceal the weapon beneath my coat-tails, that I may approach mine enemy by stealth." But lo, as he sallied forth the heat of the iron beneath his skirts did cause him to run too quickly, and when but half way to where his accuser was standing, he did slip upon a rolling stone and sat heavily down upon the heated brand which was heated with a white heat. And the four great letters were so burned upon his own body that no ointment could ever heal or hide them, and all who witnessed marvelled greatly at the retribution whereby the wicked man had stamped himself with the brand that he had heated for another. And to this day the [illegible] in the streets do jeer at the bad man and do spell aloud the letters of his branding as he passeth along the highway. And the wicked man sitteth without comfort and walketh not with agility.

[From the Bangor Commercial, Oct. 29, 1874.]

A NOBLE DECLARATION.

The great Democracy Hall meeting of last Tuesday evening put forth the following ringing declarations:

"We denounce the increase, we demand the immediate continuance of a RAG CURRENCY INCONVERTIBLE WITH COIN."

"We denounce that perpetual peril to the public faith—GOVERNMENT PAPER MADE A LEGAL TENDER."

[From the Bangor Commercial, May 30, 1878.]

EVILS TO BE GRAPPLED WITH.

There is a general complaint of hard times and dullness of business all over the country. The causes of these troubles are mainly artificial. It is in the power of the people to remove them.

The MAIN CAUSES of the present hard times and dullness of business are

AN IRREDEEMABLE CURRENCY.
A High Protective Tariff.
Too Much Speculation, and Extravagance in Living.

The two first are mainly [illegible] by the two first. GET SPECIE and do away with the tariff and the last, latter will straightway be restricted within reasonable bounds.

There was probably never at one time such an army of speculators in the country as now. These speculators produce nothing. They are supported by the labor and earnings of the people. They stand between the producer and consumer and [illegible] toll from both. A PAPER CURRENCY and the tariff are the instruments they chiefly use to [illegible] their robbery.

The unhappy editor of the Belfast Age is in even worse humor with himself and his communicated allies than he was last week. He boasts about having "built up" his paper by his "own exertions," and oracularly remarks: "Nobody ever bought a paper for us." Well the talk current in Waldo County has not run exactly that way, but we have heard sundry whisperings about a newspaper being bought, editor and all, for the purposes of a campaign. Can it be possible that was what Parry was hinting at in his remarks at the Convention. The Age man's reference to our anxious relations to the Republican party is rather late, as he has already joined and bolted from one opposition crowd and now urges his allies to go over squarely to the Democratic party. We hope the Democrats will take him.

Solon Chase's Greenback paper complains that the editor of the New Era, the Portland organ, is publishing letters written by himself but purporting to come from various parts of Solon's Congressional district, recommending one Swan for the Greenback candidacy instead of Mr. Chase. The New Era man does this because Mr. Swan was formerly his partner.

We thought the editor of the Commercial had crawled entirely out of sight last evening, but finally discovered him peeping out from behind the burly form of "Bro." Rust, of Belfast. He should look out that Rust does not slip down upon him.

Of course we do not indorse Marcellus Emery's denunciation of a protective tariff, but the fact that with his mania against protection he assigned an "irredeemable currency" as the first cause of "hard times," etc., is what we wish to exhibit.

The Boston Journal publishes a warning editorial showing up the danger threatened by Southern war claims. We are surprised that the Journal should continue to excite distrust of the "Confederate Brigadiers!"

ROCKLAND & THOMASTON BANKS

LOSERS BY THREE FORGED CHECKS

IN AMOUNT $6,594.

The Forger a Young Man Named Andrews—How he Worked the Thomaston Banks.

ROCKLAND, July 12. Last Tuesday one of the most daring swindles that ever occurred in this vicinity was successfully perpetrated, three banks being victimized on that day. Willard B. Andrews, a young man of 22 years, who has formerly been in trade here, but more recently in the fish business at Addison, Me., and selling fish in New York, presented at the counter of the Thomaston National Bank what purported to be a check drawn by Doane & Gott, commission merchants of New York, on the German National Bank of that city for $2,500, payable to Andrews' order and certified in due form. The bank cashed this check, giving up as part payment a note for seven hundred dollars made by Andrews' father, who resides in Warren, and endorsed by the son. He then proceeded to Georges National Bank, Thomaston, and offered a similar check for $1,864, which was cashed.

His Success With Rockland Banks—Description of Andrews.

Andrews then came to this city by train and offered a similar check, for the same amount as last named, at the Rockland National Bank which was also cashed it appearing all right. Just previously he had presented a similar check for $1240 at the Lime Rock National Bank which the casher offered to forward for collection but declined to cash. The three checks cashed having been forwarded for collection the banks have been notified that they are all forged. Andrews left here on the afternoon train Tuesday. He was accompanied by his father at Thomaston and by the son of one of the Directors at the Rockland bank who supposed him all right, and he was also known to the cashier. Andrews is tall, rather angular, dark complexion, small face, prominent nose, large feet and hands.

Sewall removed from the State, and H. S. Burrage in place of H. G. Storer declined. C. T. Collins.

THE SHOOTISTS.

The Two Days Shoot at Portland.

PORTLAND, July 12. The two meeting days of the Maine Rifle Club concluded at Baldwin, yesterday. The first was the President's match, 100 and 200 yards range for telescope. It was won by H. C. Hussey, of Portland, who made 89 out of a possible 100. The second was for mid range distance of 500 and 600 yards, open to members of the club only. The first prize was won by G. L. Bailey, of Portland, making 80 out of 100; second by E. C. Farrington, of Fryeburg, making 88 out of 100; third by J. W. Banks, of Portland, making 83 out of 100. The third was a long range match, distance 800, 900 and 1000 yards. The first prize was won by E. C. Farrington, making 123 out of 150; second by J. W. Banks, making 122 out of 150; third by G. L. Bailey, making 111 out of 150. G. W. Davison, of Providence Tool Co., made the highest score at mid and long ranges, but was not eligible to a prize not being a member of the club.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

NEW YORK CITY.

The New Collector Says his Appointment is Without Political Significance

NEW YORK, July 12. General Merrill, the new collector here, says that the removals of Arthur and Cornell have no political significance; that is, they were not made for the purpose of favoring one faction or displeasing another; they may have some effect incidentally. The custom house will no longer be the headquarters of a political party controlling primary meetings and conventions. I don't think, however, that a man should cease to be a working Republican when he becomes a Government officer, and there are legitimate methods by which he can work for the advancement of his party, but the vast patronage of the Custom House will not be used as a part of the political machine. I think the general effect will be to consolidate the party, unless direct war should be made on the administration. The press generally regard the removal of Arthur and Cornell as a direct blow at Conkling and the use of the Custom House as a part of the political machine.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
Washington, D. C., July 13—1 A. M.

Indications.

For New England: Cloudy weather, with frequent rains, variable winds, mostly from the South; stationary temperature and falling followed by rising barometer.

WASHINGTON.

The Potter Investigation.

WASHINGTON, July 12. The Potter Committee met Potter, Springer, Butler and Hiscock present. Kellogg resumed and testified that in his opinion had President Hayes recognized Governor Packard by telegraph immediately after the former's inauguration, and followed the same up by official recognition as President Grant had done in his (Kellogg's) case that the people of Louisiana, including the Nicholls faction would have given no trouble. He considered Packard elected as fairly as the Hayes electors as far as Louisiana was concerned.

Gen. Grant telegraphed witness a day or so before going out of office, stating that he hesitated recognizing Packard, as there had been a commission appointed to investigate the result of the Louisiana election. He referred to the McVeagh commission.

Q.—When did you first hear of the Sherman letter?

A.—Within a year. I heard last fall that a letter had been found among D. A. Weber's papers and that Mrs. Jenks procured possession of it through her intimacy with the Weber family.

Witness then related that Mrs. Jenks called upon him in New Orleans and spoke of the Sherman letter. While explaining the contents of the document Mrs. Jenks sat upon a sofa and pretended to be reading him the substance of the letter from a paper she held in her hand. Being very busy, and not caring to be connected with the affair, he advised her to call upon Packard, which he believed she did, but he was unable to relate what occurred further than that Packard had said that he did not attach any importance to her conversation.

Upon being questioned by Hiscock, witness testified that, in his opinion, the statement by Jas. E. Anderson to the effect that he, (Anderson,) had been assaulted, was nothing more or less than a conspiracy. He had requested Anderson to return to his parish and had given him money to go back, but he remained in the city and spent the money. He never employed L. B. Jenks to watch him as he has testified.

Witness pronounced as entirely imaginative and without foundation Anderson's testimony to the effect that if Kellogg did not return Nash for the Sixth Congressional District that he and Weber would burst the election, and stated that he never used the language Anderson attributed to him, namely: "By God! if you want to put your neck in a halter, you can go ahead and do it. I am Governor of this State; I control the police and courts. A word to the wise is sufficient." He never attempted to induce Anderson to make a fraudulent protest. Did not remember of having conversed with him regarding the protest after the election.

Kellogg remarked that Anderson was not the man with whom he would hold such a conversation.

Witness upon being questioned at length by Hiscock with reference to the testimony of E. L. Weber, stated, with one or two exceptions, that, as far as related to him it was entirely without foundation. He never was informed by Weber and Anderson that the elections in their parishes were peaceable and that they could not make protests on that account.

Witness believes that violence and intimidation had existed in the parishes of East and West Feliciana, East Baton Rouge, Ouchita and Morehouse. He thought that the result of the intimidation would destroy the Republican majorities, judging from the fact of the parishes mentioned having always gone Republican until 1876.

Q.—Did you see Mr. Sherman when he was in New Orleans?

A.—Yes sir.

Q.—How did he employ himself?

A.—He was present at the few open meetings of the Returning Board daily. I am not aware that he participated in any of the proceedings to a greater extent than the other visitors.

Q.—While Mr. Sherman was in New Orleans do you know of his doing or saying anything either to any supervisor with reference to a protest, or to any member of the Returning Board, in relation to his action.

A.—No sir; I have seen him in my office when the Returning Board officers were there, but never saw him in consultation with them.

Q.—Do you know of any case where there was a false, a forged or an unfair protest, or any other unfair election paper that was used before the Returning Board of 1876?

A.—I do not.

Q.—Is there any letter which was written by you in regard to the canvass or action of the Returning Board that you do not wish made public?

A.—No sir; on the contrary if any one has any letters written by me bearing on the election, I hope they will not delay in publishing the same, the sooner the better.

By Springer—How about Mrs. Jenks?

Witness.—Every one is included.

The Committee then, at 2.15 P. M., took a recess for half an hour. Chairman Potter expects to leave for New Orleans in a few days, and as Hunton is absent, the Committee will be left without a quorum. It is therefore the intention, as soon as the examination of Kellogg is concluded, to take a recess for a week or ten days. His examination will probably be finished to-day.

After a short recess the examination of Mr. Kellogg was resumed and in response to questions by Mr. Springer he stated that he was acquainted with members of the Returning Board, and had several conversations with General Anderson pending the sitting of the board and from him obtained general information in regard to the transactions that occurred in the public sessions of the Board. Mr. Kellogg was closely questioned as to the service of the colored man, Kenner, on the Returning Board and emphatically denied that any intimation of compensating him (Kenner) was made.

Q.—Did you not borrow about $20,000 after the election, from the Union National Bank of Chicago?

A.—I did.

Q.—Who were the sureties with you upon that loan?

A.—John B. Lyon of Chicago, a Commission merchant and an old friend, indorsed the note, and I had some assistance from my friend C. B. Farwell, formerly a member of Congress, and I believe a Director in the Bank, though not an endorser of the note. This was in August or September, 1877. That paper has since been taken up.

Q.—For what purpose did you make that loan?

A.—It had nothing at all to do with the election. I loaned a portion, about $14,000 or $15,000 of the money I obtained, to my brother-in-law, C. W. Wells, and I used a portion to pay off debts that I owed in Chicago and New Orleans.

The witness was questioned at length by Mr. Springer in regard to the disposition of the money thus obtained and reiterated his statement that none of the money was used in any way in connection with the election or with the count made by the Returning Board, but that it was purely a business transaction. The witness was also questioned by Springer as to a conversation held by him (witness) with Senator Spencer of Ala., at Chicago, in regard to this $20,000 loan and denied that he had ever said or intimated to Spencer that the money was to be used for the purpose of paying one of the members of the Returning Board for political services rendered.

Being questioned as to statements by Senator Spencer of Alabama, that $5000 had been paid a member of the Returning Board before the signing of the report he said if Senator Spencer has stated anything of the kind he has certainly misrepresented what I said, to put it in as emphatic and respectful language as I can use, it is certainly not correct

In reply to questions as to promises alleged to have been made the Board of providing for them witness said: I believe the Board and its officers generally felt that if Hayes became President there would be a Republican State administration and in that event they would not be subjected to the odium, or ostracism, which they knew was unavoidable if the State fell into the hands of the opposition.

The witness was then questioned at length by the chairman in regard to the sending of the electoral returns of the State to Washington, their being found to be irregular in form and as to the manner of preparing the second set of the returns, but stated no new facts.

In reply to questions as to knowledge of the alleged forgery of names to the second set of returns the witness said he knew nothing of it all.

FOREIGN NEWS.

MONTREAL EXCITED

DIVERTED BY THE ORANGEMEN

Who Gave up their Procession.

A FEW OF THEM MOBBED,

BEATEN & INJURED.

The Streets Crowded and Commotion Rife.

MONTREAL, July 12. Since 8 o'clock the city has been in commotion with crowds of people in the principal streets, and the military marching to the rendezvous in Champ de Mars. The first blow struck in the impending conflict was by one of the Mayor's special constables who deliberately assaulted with his baton a bandman of the Prince of Wales riflemen named Wm. Sharp, at the corner of Jacques Carter Square and Notre Dame-st., without any provocation. The regiment was proceeding towards the rendezvous. At 9 o'clock the whole military force, consisting of five regiments of infantry, one corps of artillery and a troop of cavalry were drawn up on Champs de Mars under Col. Fletcher, waiting the arrival of General Smythe. The troops looked well and the officer in command expressed his fullest confidence in the men doing their duty loyally and well.

The police are collected at City Hall, where special constables are assembled with white ribbons as badges, and clubs in hand. They are a despicable looking lot, and a police-sergeant says that a majority are jail birds. The utmost fear prevails that they are a dangerous gang who will commit excesses if they get a chance.

Gathering of Orangemen.

The police will be in charge of the Mayor and special constables under deputy Chief Nagle. The Orangemen are determined to walk and are now mustering at Orange Hall. St. James-st., is decorated with their party favors. The procession will not be large but their sympathizers in the street are many, if a conflict occurs it will undoubtedly take place between Orange Hall and Victoria Square where the dangerous element is collecting in masses. The chief of police with sixty men searched the passengers on the steamer from Quebec for arms, but found none there were some four or five hundred men on board. A man named Brennan from Three Rivers arrived at the depot with a loaded seven shooter on his person. He was locked up. It is reported that arms concealed in a house in Craig-st., where the Irish Catholic Club meets, have been discovered. At 9:30 the military marched from Champ de Mars to various points where they will be stationed during the day, some excitement was created by an alarm of fire but it was only a chimney. The Orangemen are massing around their hall and it looks as if the procession will be larger than anticipated.

Police and Crowds Massing.

A detachment of police is stationed around the entrance of the hall. The arms alleged to have been found in Union Hall, Craig street, were 50 stand. The police and special constables are massed between the Place de Arms and St. Lambert's Hill on St. James street, which is kept clear. At either end are massed dense crowds of Catholics, chiefly St. Jean Baptists and outside village laborers. They are dreadfully excited and every man with an orange favor on his way to the hall is pursued.

The Orangemen Bound to Walk.

The Mayor has had an interview with the Orangemen and tried to persuade them not to walk, but they would not listen to this council. The procession will start about 10.30. A young man wearing the orange lily was attacked by two special constables and struck across the head. This valiant act was applauded by the whole body of Catholics. The 53d Regiment under Col Ibbetson and directed by the Magistrate, are stationed in place on De Arms Square, close to Orange Hall.

They Give up the Procession.

11 A. M. The Orangemen are conferring as to whether they will carry out the procession and a vote will be taken without delay.

11.40 A. M.—It has been decided to have no procession. The police are to escort the Orangemen to their homes. An attack was made on an Orangeman on Craig street, but he was quickly rescued and did not sustain much injury.

All Quiet.

MONTREAL, July 12. At three o'clock all was quiet and the police have cleared the streets, a good many of the rowdy element appearing under the influence of liquor. The Orangemen are still in their hall discussing a proposition to have a grand procession of the 6th anniversary of Hackett's funeral. If this is decided on the Western Orangemen will be invited.

An Orangeman Fearfully Beaten.

4.14 P. M.—As an Orangeman was proceeding home in a cab from Orange Hall he was attacked by an infuriated mob at the corner of St. Lawrence and Craig streets and beaten almost to death; his eyes were nearly gouged out, and he lies in a critical condition.

Arresting Orangemen.

MONTREAL, July 12. D. J. Grant, County Master and John Hamilton, County Secretary, were arrested. They went quietly to the police station. The other Orangemen who entered the lodge will remain there for Grant's return when a consultation will be held. The Mayor will arrest every man as he comes out of the lodge, unless he expresses the intention of going home. Mayor Beaudry has occupied a seat all the morning on St. James street, directly opposite Orange Hall, where he can conveniently direct the movements of the constabulary. He appears satisfied and pleased that his plans are being so successfully worked out and is resolved to continue to proceed as heretofore.

THE GREAT CONGRESS.

Completing and Signing a Treaty.

RATIFICATION IN THIRTY DAYS.

The Batoum Fortifications.

LONDON, July 12. A Berlin despatch says that in consequence of the opposition offered by Gortschakoff the demolition of the fortifications of Batoum was not made obligatory upon Russia, but only implied the designation of Batoum as a commercial port.

Guarantees to France.

MANCHESTER, July 12. The Guardian's Paris correspondent states that Waddington, the French Plenipotentiary, in Congress, has the strictest guarantees of English respect for French rights in Syria and Egypt.

LONDON, July 12. The Times' Paris correspondent says that moderate counsels may for the moment be disregarded; but it may be confidently predicted that, as in the case of the Suez Canal purchase, the present irritation against England will be very short lived.

Ratification of the Treaty.

BERLIN, July 12. It is expected the official publication of the treaty of peace will follow its ratification which will be effected within a month of signing. A sitting of the Congress was held this afternoon to complete the reading of the instrument of peace. The document will be printed to-night. It is probable the Congress will to-day adopt decisions relative to the local commissions to be instituted and the supplementary conference which it is proposed to hold next autumn either at Constantinople or Berlin. Count Schouvaloff will leave for St. Petersburg, Sunday.

The Turks Satisfied.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 12. The population of Constantinople is satisfied with the Anglo-Turkish treaty. At the council of Ministers to-day, the Sultan presiding, the Greek question was discussed.

A Long Document.

LONDON, July 12. The treaty of peace contains 60 clauses and is reported to be the longest ever known.

The Liberals.

LONDON, July 12. Regarding the English Liberals, there is said to be a growing conviction that the front opposition bench in Commons will not hastily give a formal challenge to the Government's policy. There was a meeting yesterday of the Liberals who desire to urge the Liberal chiefs into action, but Hartington, the Liberal leader, and his immediate friends are stated to show no disposition to give way.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Foggy last night.

Full moon to-morrow.

The river driver drivers still continue to flock into the city.

Mr. Dennin, proprietor of the Mt. Kineo House was in the city yesterday.

We are informed that there is very little sickness in the city this summer.

The farmers say that everything looks favorable for large crops this year.

Twenty-eight cents will buy two pounds of cooked corned beef at J. H. Snow's.

There were four boys in the station house last night, from ten to fourteen years old.

Yesterday we saw some very handsome wheat raised in the vicinity of the Trotting Park.

At Danl. White's, can be found a full assortment of spectacles, gold pens and jewelry.

Two families consisting of five persons start from this city Monday morning for Minnesota.

There will be a floral concert in the First Congregation church at Brewer, Sunday evening.

Last Tuesday a man named Sprague was overcome by the heat and had a narrow escape from sunstroke.

Rev. E. Y. Hincks of Portland, will occupy the pulpit at the Central church Sunday morning and evening.

The cargo of molasses recently imported by Isaac M. Bragg, has been purchased by Charles Haywood & Co.

Officer Weymouth will commence duty by day this morning and officer Allen will take his place on the night force.

The steamer Howell will leave steamboat wharf at eight o'clock to-morrow morning for a sail down the Bay.

Almost every one that can leave their business are now at some of the summer resorts, and the city is decidly quiet.

Next Monday the steamer Gov. Coburn will commence to run daily between Greenville and Kineo on Moosehead Lake.

The stevedore who was injured in the hold of a vessel at Sargent's ice house Thursday, was able to walk about yesterday.

Col. Morrill, of Dexter, has bought half of the trotter "Pomp." W. H. Brackett, of Auburn, who owns the other half, is now handling him.

The rear of the Mattawamkeag drive was on Passadumkeag rips yesterday, and will probably arrive in the main boom next Tuesday.

There will be a dance in Emery Hall, Bucksport, next Thursday in honor of the visit of the Handle excursion. Andrews Orchestra will furnish music.

An exchange says: "Almost everybody likes to try his skill at haying—but one or two days, while the mercury is loafing around the upper nineties in the shade, generally cures the worst cases."

For some time past the boys from this city have been in the habit of bathing in the vicinity of the toll bridge on the Brewer side. This has proved a great nuisance and yesterday one of the citizens notified the police and two boys named Caswell and Ragan were arrested.

Last evening two young men ventured out in a double scull and were getting along finely until one of them undertook to turn around and look up stream, when the boat upset. They presented rather a forlorn appearance hanging on to the bottom of the boat while being towed ashore.

At the meeting of the Trustees of the Penobscot Musical Association, it was decided to hold the annual Convention October 8th-11th. It was also voted to write Mr. J. W. Whitney, and ascertain his terms for acting as Director of the Convention. The Trustees will meet again next Thursday.

The members of the 8th, 9th and 11th Regiments met at Grand Army Hall last evening. The matter of the coming reunion was freely discussed, and it is quite probable that the date will be changed from the 6th to 15th of August. Another meeting will be held [illegible] this evening, when all the arrangements will be perfected.

By referring to another column it will be seen that on and after Wednesday of next week the steamer May Field will extend her regular trip to Bar Harbor. Heretofore she has made but one trip a week to that place, but by this new arrangement she will make two regular trips per week which will prove a great accommodation to pleasure seekers.

At about four o'clock yesterday afternoon a pleasant party embarked on the barge for Fort Point, intending to return home by moonlight. Andrews' orchestra accompanied the party and played some of their finest selections on the way down river. On reaching Bucksport it was found that the fog was exceedingly thick and the boat turned about and arrived here at ten o'clock.

FIRE AT EAST CORINTH. Our correspondent at East Corinth writes: The farm buildings of Charles D. Chapman, situated about a mile east of this village, were entirely consumed by fire Thursday evening between nine and ten o'clock, caused by breaking a kerosene lantern. Nothing was saved but the furniture in one front room. Insured for $1,900 on the building and $100 on the furniture in the Piscataquis Mutual.

MUSTER. The Gazette says. "A splendid location has been secured for the muster of the Piscataquis Veteran Battalion next fall, at Dover. It is upon an intervale, between Dover Village and East Dover, being a field containg some twenty acres as level as a house floor. The river makes a sharp bend at this point, so that water is upon two sides of the field. The road which passes by it is one of the pleasantest drives out of the village, and we don't think that a more favorable locality for the muster could be found anywhere else in this part of the State."

METHODIST EXCURSION. We understand that the Methodists of this section of the State are arranging for a grand excursion to Northport the latter part of this month on the barge Clifford. The proceeds of the trip will be devoted to refurnishing the boarding house at the East Maine Conference Seminary in Bucksport. Those having the matter in charge are going to work with a will, and the indications are that the excursion will prove a success. It is proposed to have a vocal and instrumental concert at Wesleyan Grove, and make the occasion as enjoyable as possible.

HANDEL EXCURSION. As will be seen by reference to another column the first excursion will take place next Thursday. This organization give two excursions this season and owing to complications arising in the way of making arrangements, the trips both occur this month. This one to Northern Bay, will be one of the largest and finest river excursions ever made from here, and by the way people are talking and planning, it would seem as if "everybody and their friends" are going. The ball at Bucksport, in connection with the day's festivities will be a welcome feature of the affair, and the names of the managers is a guarantee that it will be conducted in first class style.

STEAMER KATAHDIN. For some time a grand excursion from this city to Bar Harbor on one of the Sanford Steamships has been in contemplation, and as it has met the approbation of many who have been consulted, the arrangements have been perfected. The popular steamer Katahdin will leave this city next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock for Bar Harbor, returning Sunday afternoon, touching both ways at Winterport and Bucksport. It is almost needless for us to say that every effort will be made to make the trip thoroughly enjoyable, for it is a well known fact that the officers of this steamer always extend every possible courtesy. Tickets and staterooms can be obtained of Messrs. Pearl & Webb, or at the office on the wharf. A full band of music will accompany the party which will undoubtedly be a large one, as the price of the tickets has been placed at a low figure.

COMMENCING YOUNG. Yesterday Marshal Reed was notified that some one had cut two lead acid pans belonging to the Eastern Burnettizing Company and carried off a portion of the lead. These pans are about one inch in thickness, and the two were worth about one hundred dollars. He immediately began to investigate the matter, and after quite a search he found about thirty-eight pounds of the lead at Wm. Cary's store in East Hampden, he having purchased it from three boys named Wm. Hutchinson, Wm. Hall, and Albert Hamlin. He then got out a warrant for the boys, which he placed in the hands of the night force, with instructions to arrest them during the evening. Officers Nickerson, McCoy and Dougherty, took a team and started out after the boys last night, and arrested two of them on Thatcher street, and the other in Brewer where he was visiting. Their ages range from ten to twelve years.

THE MAY FIELD. The excursion which left this city on the May Field yesterday for Vinalhaven was a success, with the exception of reaching the desired haven. A short distance below Castine the fog set in so thick that it was deemed advisable to run for Rockland, instead of cruising among the rocks in the bay. The boat arrived at Rockland at about two o'clock when the party who started for Vinalhaven took the steamer Pioneer and proceeded to that place. The excursionists went up town and spent about an hour and a half looking about the place, and then started for this city, where they arrived at half-past nine, having made the run from Rockland, touching at the usual landings, in six hours. The courtesies extended by Capt. Barbour and crew, so noticeable to pleasure seekers, deserves more than ordinary notice on this occasion. Everything was done to promote the enjoyment of the party and all pronounced the trip a success. The boat starts for Bar Harbor at the usual hour this morning.

WHAT A ROBIN DID. The Portland Press says: "A gentleman residing on Chestnut street, has a cat of unusual intelligence and quick wit, but not enough to save her from ignominious defeat by the usual victim of the feline tribe—a robin. It happened thus: Wednesday evening the cat was noticed walking lazily across the street, when a robin was observed to pounce from the air directly on her head, striking it with considerable force. The cat attempted to strike the bird with her paw, but failed again and again. As the robin persisted in its attacks, at length the cat attempted to flee, but the robin was undoubtedly mad and made such persistent renewals of the combat or rather persecution, that Tabby changed her tactics and lay on her back, evidently waiting to strike the robin if he should make another swoop. The bird well understanding the stratagem, retired to the neighboring fence, with eyes still fixed on the prostrate cat, who was soon frightened by a passing team, only to receive another blow from her enraged antagonist as soon as flight was attempted. This unequal contest was kept up for some minutes, and always in favor of the bird, till some boys frightened at the same moment both combatants, thus ending the battle."

VEGETINE

Will Cure Cancer.

PROOF! PROOF! PROOF!

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir,—About two years ago, a Cancer made its appearance on my face, left side of my nose. When I first noticed it, 'twas about the size of a pin head (very small). It increased in size, and spread on my face until it became as large as a common cent. I tried all kinds of remedies, and advice from a physician. It was spreading and eating into my flesh very fast. I was very much alarmed. I went to see a physician who cured Cancers; he did not give me much encouragement. It pained me very much; I suffered night and day. It would bleed at times very profusely. Every thing was done that could be to try to cure the cancer. My brother had a cancer on his lip; he submitted to an operation, being well-discouraged. I was one day in Mr. Woodberry's apothecary store, of this town. He gave me your pamphlet, containing many cures by the use of Vegetine. I found on page 19 where Vegetine had cured a Cancer on a lady's nose, I then bought a bottle of your Vegetine, and it proved a great blessing to me; I could see good effects from it right away. After taking three bottles, it stopped the spreading of the cancer about the edges; it checked the eating into my flesh. I could see it was gradually healing. I kept on taking Vegetine, the cancer slowly disappearing, until I had taken sixteen bottles and it completely cured it. It has left a large scar on one side of my nose; and I feel it my duty to recommend Vegetine to all like sufferers, as it is certainly a great "Blood Purifier." I am now sixty-three years of age, and Vegetine has greatly improved my general health.

Yours most respectfully, WM. P. CLEAVES,
24 Federal St., Beverly, Mass.

We, whose names are annexed, can testify to the above, as Mr. Cleaves is an old resident of this town.

VEGETINE.—For eradicating all impurities of the blood from the system, it has no equal. It has never failed to effect a cure, giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

VEGETINE

Cured after 20 Years Suffering.

READVILLE, Mass., Feb. 15, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.:—

Dear Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to give in my testimony to the good effect the Vegetine has had on me. I have been troubled for twenty years with an eating Ulcer on my shin-bone. During that time I have tried many remedies, but have not had it cured till now. Some three months ago it was very bad, so that the flesh was eaten into the bone, from a place as large as the palm of your hand. I was recommended by Mr. Tilton to try your Vegetine, and I did so. In taking the first bottle, it commences to heal; and I have only taken five bottles, and it is all healed nicely, and I would cheerfully recommend it to all alike afflicted.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON SEARS.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

VEGETINE

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

CINCINNATI, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.:—

Dear Sir,—I have used your Vegetine in my family, and know it to be, and can recommend it as, a good purifier and cleanser of the blood. I have used several bottles; it is a valuable medicine.

Respectfully, D. B. STEBBITT, Grocer,
N. E. Cor. Main and Franklin Sts.

THOUSANDS will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily), that Vegetine is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for the renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humors, impurities or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it, "The Great Health Restorer."

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE

FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

*The London Academy of December 22d, 1877, says: "In St. Nicholas we welcome the best thing of juvenile literature that we have yet seen. * * * We have no hesitation in saying that both in the letter-press and in the pictures that American magazine has no rival."*

"In St. Nicholas for December, the Grand Christmas Number, was begun a charming new

Serial Story by Miss Alcott

"Under the Lilacs," illustrated by Mary Hallock Foote, to continue during the year. This same Christmas number, of which one hundred thousand copies were printed, contained the opening chapters of for boys, "Tower-Mountain," by Gustavus Frankenstein, also poems by Longfellow and Bryant, a portrait of Miss Alcott, half a dozen short stories, pictures, poems, etc., etc. It is the handsomest number of a child's magazine ever issued.

[illegible]

[illegible]

"St. Nicholas has a list of contributors such as no other child's magazine, or few publications of any sort, in the world can boast. It has caused the best writers in America to turn their attention to the task of giving delight and imparting culture to children. [illegible] St. Nicholas has reached a higher platform, and commands for this service wider resources in art and letters, than any of its predecessors or contemporaries."

St. Nicholas, for 1878,

Besides the serial stories above mentioned, will have a short serial story by the author of "The Schonberg-Cotta Family," and three [illegible] for boys, one of which, "[illegible]," by Edwin [illegible], an English writer, will begin in March. "Around the World with the Yacht, Boys!" has been promised by a brilliant writer, now on the actual tour of the world in his own yacht. There will be contributions by a daughter of the famous Peter Parley, and a Letter to Young Americans by

GEORGE MACDONALD.

The "HOW" Series of instructive papers, by various authors, will tell HOW to bind your own books; HOW they make coal; HOW to enjoy yourselves at home; HOW to be an agreeable guest; HOW to entertain company; HOW to be a carpenter; HOW to make an ice-boat; HOW to build a house; How India rubber is gathered; HOW matches are made; HOW to be a Parlor Magician; HOW money is made; HOW mackerel are caught; HOW they laid the Atlantic cable; HOW they mine in California; HOW they work in the tea-country; etc. There will be also stories of stories and sketches of foreign life, such as "Old Nicolai (a Russian story)," "A Day among the Welsh Castles," "Winter in Germany," "The Indians of the Amazon," "How Kitty was lost in a Turkish Bazar," "Mexican Montezuma" (a Mexican story), "Hans, the Lapp Maiden," and many others.

TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE,

"Jack-in-the-Pulpit," "Young Contributors' Department," "Letter-Box," "Riddle Box," and "For Very Little Folks," will be continued.
